

Kimberly Dearing, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Specializing in Off-Market Bargain Property Deals Throughout Eastern North Carolina

of Maltese Property Solutions, is revolutionizing the real estate investment industry in North Carolina. She is a premier nationwide private money lender/broker. We excel in crafting personalized funding solutions catering to the needs of both new and experienced investors. As an asset-based lender, we prioritize your project's potential over rigid experience or credit score requirements.

What distinguishes her? We extend financing of up to 100% for purchase, rehabilitation, and closing costs, securing up to 70% of the After Repair Value (ARV). If you have a non-owner-occupied real estate investment lined up, don't hesitate to reach out. Together, let's explore the diverse range of tailored solutions awaiting you.

Originally from Taiwan and adopted into a military household as a baby, Kimberly's journey has been marked by challenges, including the loss of her spouse to cancer after a blissful 25-year marriage. Despite this, she remains committed to giving back and supporting the less fortunate. Her success is attributed to her unwavering faith in God and belief in fulfilling one's unique purpose. Kimberly finds joy in her family and values the connections she has cultivated.

In addition to her real estate pursuits, Kimberly assists individuals in locating unclaimed government funds as a private money lender, showcasing her altruistic nature. Her dedication to helping others extends beyond real estate, reflecting her commitment to making a positive impact in the community. When not transforming North Carolina's real estate landscape, Kimberly enjoys traveling, motorcycle riding, and spending quality time with loved ones. Her passion for life and genuine desire to uplift others solidify her as a formidable force in the real estate world.
