

Marion M. Herring, MD, Renowned Orthopedic Surgeon with OrthoVirginia

An Athlete Serving Athletes: Recognized for Excellence in Orthopedic Surgery and Sports Medicine

New York City, New York May 29, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Richmond, Virginia – Dr. Marion “Moose” Herring, a distinguished orthopedic surgeon with OrthoVirginia at the Shrader Road office, has been honored with the prestigious Top Doctor Award by Richmond Magazine for his exceptional contributions to the field of orthopedic surgery.

Dual board certified and fellowship-trained, Dr. Herring specializes in a wide range of orthopedic procedures, with a particular focus on shoulder replacement, arthroscopic rotator cuff repair, ACL reconstruction, and meniscal repair. With a passion for advancing surgical techniques, he has dedicated his career to staying at the forefront of orthopedic innovation.

Dr. Herring’s expertise extends to specialized procedures such as reverse total shoulder replacement, anatomic total shoulder replacement, and stemless shoulder replacement. He not only performs these intricate surgeries with precision but also imparts his knowledge by educating fellow surgeons on these advanced techniques and implants.

Dr. Herring’s journey to becoming a leading orthopedic surgeon began at Washington and Lee University, where he earned his Bachelor’s Degree, followed by his Medical Degree from the University of North Carolina School of Medicine. He further honed his skills through an internship in general surgery and residency in orthopedic surgery at the Medical College of Virginia, before completing a prestigious sports medicine and shoulder fellowship at Duke University under the mentorship of world-renowned surgeons.

Beyond his clinical practice, Dr. Herring holds the esteemed position of Chief of Shoulder Surgery at Parham Doctors’ Hospital, serves as a team physician at Endorphin Fitness and Central Virginia Endurance, and is a consulting team physician at Zap Fitness.

His expertise has also been recognized by his induction into the American Shoulder and Elbow Society, a distinction held by only a select group of physicians worldwide. Dr. Herring is an active member of the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine and the Medical Society of Virginia, further solidifying his commitment to excellence in patient care and professional development.

Dr. Herring’s dedication to his craft extends beyond the operating room, as he continues to excel in running and triathlon events. A seasoned athlete, he has competed in prestigious races such as The Ironman World Championships and the Boston Marathon, earning All-American status in Triathlon multiple times.

Dr. Marion M. Herring’s passion for sports and orthopedic surgery converge seamlessly, making him a respected figure in the medical and athletic communities alike.
