About The Author: Philippe Mathijs

With nearly three decades of corporate experience at an international level and the last ten years spent in C-level leadership, Philippe marries the hands-on experience of running companies with thousands of hours coaching team leaders and, above all, helping people reach their full potential. He's someone who's been there, with the scars to show it.

The constant thread running through Phillippe's career and life is his passion for people and drive to leave a positive legacy to the people, teams, and companies he's served as a coach and an executive. Philippe believes people can achieve their desires and aspirations while exploring their potential in a way that will discover new ways of living, operating, behaving, and being. He's truly passionate about seeing people grow and thrive in ways they deeply desire.
