His journey in hospitality began with his formal education at the esteemed Hospitality School in Zurich, Switzerland, where he completed his Hotel Management studies. This solid academic foundation set the stage for his illustrious career in the hospitality sector, marked by roles in some of the world's most prestigious venues.

Following his studies, Risko Isic honed his skills and expertise at several renowned establishments, including the 3 Michelin Star Restaurant Fischerzunft in Schaffhausen, Switzerland. Working at such a high-caliber venue not only refined his culinary and managerial skills but also ingrained in him the standards of excellence and attention to detail that would become the hallmark of his career.

Risko's journey then led him to Brisbane, where he further established his reputation in the hospitality industry. His extensive experience in Brisbane's top establishments reflects his versatility and adaptability in various culinary environments. Notably, Risko owned and managed one of Brisbane's iconic venues, Mariosarti Restaurant in Toowong, for over five years. Under his leadership, Mariosarti became synonymous with exceptional dining experiences, earning a loyal clientele and numerous accolades.

One of the crowning achievements of Risko's career was the development of the first fine dining concept on the Wheel of Brisbane. This innovative venture showcased his ability to blend creativity with operational expertise, delivering a unique dining experience that captured the imagination of both locals and tourists. This project not only highlighted his visionary approach to hospitality but also set a new benchmark for dining experiences in Brisbane.

Throughout his career, Risko Isic has been recognized with some of the highest honors from the Australian Restaurant and Catering Industry, as well as the Italian Hospitality and Commerce Association. These accolades are a testament to his commitment to excellence, his leadership in the industry, and his relentless pursuit of perfection in every aspect of his work.

Today, Risko Isic serves as the CEO of Sirromet Wines, Queensland's largest wine producer. In this role, he continues to leverage his extensive experience and deep industry knowledge to drive the company's growth and success. Under his leadership, Sirromet Wines has not only expanded its market presence but also enhanced its reputation for producing high-quality wines that are celebrated both locally and internationally.

Risko's vision for Sirromet Wines includes a focus on sustainability, innovation, and expanding the brand's footprint in the global market. He is committed to fostering a culture of excellence within the organization, ensuring that every bottle of Sirromet wine reflects the quality and passion that has defined his career. His strategic initiatives aim to position Sirromet Wines as a leader in the industry, known for its exceptional products and commitment to sustainable practices.

Risko Isic's journey from a hospitality student in Zurich to a celebrated leader in the food and beverage industry is a testament to his dedication, expertise, and unwavering commitment to excellence. His leadership at Sirromet Wines promises continued success and innovation, ensuring that the company remains at the forefront of the wine industry for years to come.
