Hollywood, California Jun 4, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Actor and Singer Ray Buffer Wraps Production in Two Thrilling Film Roles

Renowned actor and singer Ray Buffer is prepared to captivate audiences with his compelling performances, this time in two gripping film productions shot in the picturesque Pacific Northwest. Buffer, known for his versatility and commanding presence on screen, showcases his talent as he takes on antagonist roles in the action-packed film "MY FACE" and the exhilarating science fiction fantasy "SKYCRASH."

In "SKYCRASH," directed by visionary filmmaker Taegen Carter, Buffer embodies the role of a formidable antagonist in a high-stakes race against time. The film follows the story of a UFO crash whose debris is a powerful weapon with the potential to alter the course of humanity. As an enigmatic government faction seeks control, an unlikely hero emerges. Buffer, plays Shadow Agent Darwin, an instrument of the government faction. Set against the breathtaking backdrop of Oregon, "SKYCRASH" promises audiences an unforgettable cinematic experience filled with suspense and intrigue.

Meanwhile, in "MY FACE," directed by the talented Ukrainian director, Oleksandr Berezan, Buffer portrays another compelling antagonist in a riveting tale of deception and redemption. The film follows a young director forced to shoot his film in disguise and under a false identity while evading hired killers. Buffer's character adds layers of complexity to the story-line as he becomes embroiled in a high-stakes game of cat and mouse. Shot on location in the lush landscapes of Washington, "MY FACE" will deliver an adrenaline-fueled ride from start to finish.
