

From Behind Bars to the Airwaves

Tucx Lv Releases Debut Single "They Say Don't Break" on June 28th, 2024

Dayton, Ohio Jun 17, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Emerging from the confines of a lengthy prison sentence, Tucx Lv, the newest voice in rap, is set to captivate the music world with his debut single "They Say Don't Break," releasing on June 28th, 2024. Tucx Lv has spent years honing his craft within prison walls, determined to share his powerful message with the world. That day has finally arrived.

"They Say Don't Break" marks Tucx Lv's official entry into the music industry, entirely curated from behind bars. His music, deeply rooted in personal experience and growth, aims to inspire and uplift today's youth. Tucx Lv's mission is clear: to inspire a generation through music that carries a deeper meaning and purpose.

Throughout his incarceration, Tucx Lv's music has resonated with fellow inmates and staff, proving transformative and offering a sense of hope. His authenticity and unwavering dedication to being 100% real set him apart, ensuring his music reaches and relates to listeners from all walks of life.

In addition to his debut single, Tucx Lv is preparing for the release of his first full album, "No Stage Fright," slated for October 2024. The album, although curated from behind bars, is a promising one. Providing a unique sound and style, reflecting his genuine persona and life experiences.

Tucx Lv acknowledges his past mistakes but credits his relationship with God and the influence of the strong men and women in his life for his transformation. His music, while not categorized as Christian rap, carries a strong inspirational message. "It's easy to get Christians to listen to Christian music.. but with Jesus, we'll take on what looks impossible til it becomes possible, by reaching the world," says Tucx Lv. His aim is to reach those entrenched in crime and violence, offering a beacon of hope and change.

Support for Tucx Lv's musical journey is greatly welcomed. Fans are encouraged to follow his social media platforms and download "They Say Don't Break" on June 28th. As Tucx embarks on this new chapter, he aims for a successful and enduring career that will open many doors, allowing him to continue spreading his message of hope and inspiration.
