

Homeland Language Services and Reynolds School District Forge Successful Partnership in Language Interpretation Services

Homeland Language Services, a reliable language services provider, supports the Reynolds School District with exemplary language interpretation.

Testimonial

Reynolds School District

"With great confidence, I endorse them for any organization seeking reliable and high-quality language interpretation services."

Gresham, Oregon Jun 6, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - The Reynolds School District expressed deep appreciation for Homeland Language Services' exceptional commitment and efficiency in delivering language interpretation services. The Reynolds School District highlighted Homeland Language Services' invaluable role in facilitating effective communication between the school district and parents from diverse linguistic backgrounds.

One of the key aspects lauded by the Reynolds School District is Homeland Language Services' user-friendly online portal for requesting interpreters. This portal has significantly streamlined the process, enabling the district's department to access language interpretation services promptly and efficiently.

"Homeland Language Services stands out for their unwavering commitment to promptly resolving any issues that may arise. Whenever there is a situation where an interpreter is unavailable, the team at Homeland Language Services takes proactive steps to ensure that alternative arrangements are made promptly. This level of responsiveness has greatly contributed to the smooth functioning of our communication processes.

I would like to express my appreciation for the outstanding efforts of Homeland Language Services during conference times. The team has been working tirelessly to ensure that our district has access to interpreters for virtual conferences, thereby facilitating effective and accessible communication between educators and parents," – Ismael Gonzalez, Language Services Coordinator at Reynolds School District.

Christian Lanazca, CEO of Homeland Language Services commented on the partnership, saying: "We are thrilled to collaborate with the Reynolds School District in providing language interpretation services that enhance communication and foster inclusivity within the community. This partnership exemplifies our commitment to delivering exceptional solutions that meet the diverse needs of our clients."

Given this feedback, the Reynolds School District highly recommends Homeland Language Services for their professionalism, efficiency, and dedication to facilitating effective communication. They endorse Homeland Language Services as a reliable and high-quality provider of language interpretation services for any organization seeking to improve language access.

Homeland Language Services is honored to receive such positive feedback from the Reynolds School District and remains committed to delivering top-notch language interpretation services to clients across various sectors.

Media Contact

Homeland Language Services

llanazca@homelandls.com

(805) 454-9147

777 South Flagler Drive West Tower 33401

Source : Homeland Language Services

See on IssueWire