

Joshiah Gordon, DO, MSc, FACP, FCCP, Bringing Expertise in Pulmonary Hypertension and Interventional Techniques

Committed to Innovative and Comprehensive Patient Care

New York City, New York Jun 6, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Gordon is an established pulmonologist with a wealth of experience and a passion for treating patients with a wide range of pulmonary conditions. Since joining Pueblo Pulmonary Associates in Colorado in 2011, he has been dedicated to providing exceptional care to patients dealing with general pulmonary complaints, ranging from shortness of breath to cancer.

His expertise extends to specialized areas such as pulmonary hypertension and interventional pulmonary techniques, including navigation bronchoscopy and endobronchial ultrasound. He also played a pivotal role in establishing the Pulmonary Hypertension and Right Heart Failure Clinic.

A Colorado native, Dr. Gordon's academic journey began at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, where he earned his undergraduate degree in Exercise and Sports Science, followed by a Master's Degree in Anatomy. He furthered his medical education by completing his internal medicine residency at the University of Louisville and his fellowship in pulmonary and critical care at the University of Cincinnati.

Dedicated to advancing the field of pulmonary medicine, he currently serves as the Program Director of the Pulmonary and Critical Care Fellowship at Parkview Medical Center, demonstrating his leadership and commitment to shaping the next generation of healthcare providers.

With a keen interest in critical care ultrasound and rare lung diseases, Dr. Gordon brings a diverse skill set and a compassionate approach to patient care. His expertise and innovation in the field make him a trusted partner in managing complex pulmonary conditions and providing personalized treatment plans for each patient.
