

Krimries Announces the Launch of His Debut Album "Rise Up"

Vancouver, British Columbia Jun 25, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Krimries, an emerging Christian artist making waves with his unique blend of musical genres and thought-provoking lyrics, is excited to announce the release of his debut album, "Rise Up." The album has been released and will be available in stores in the coming weeks on all major music platforms.

"Rise Up" represents a powerful introduction to Krimries' sound and lyrical depth, addressing themes of resilience, hope, and social justice. With this album, Krimries aims to create an experience that is both sonically rich and emotionally compelling.

In conjunction with the album release, Krimries has also released his second single, "Jesus Weeps," which is available now in online music stores and streaming services. All royalties from the sales and streams of "Jesus Weeps" will be donated to aid agencies in Palestine. This initiative underscores Krimries' commitment to using his platform to support humanitarian causes and raise awareness about global issues.
