

Lending Tower: Setting the Record Straight on Legitimacy

Lending Tower reaffirms its status as a trusted financial partner to thousands of customers and clears the air on questions like “Is Lending Tower legitimate?”

Newport Beach, California Jun 28, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Lending Tower reaffirms its position as a trusted partner in helping people achieve financial security. The company reveals the secret to its success, while directly answering questions such as “Is Lending Tower legitimate?” and “How does it provide funding so quickly?”

Lending Tower is a licensed loan provider based in Newport Beach, California that helps its customers get funded quickly. As an empathetic lender, the company understands the importance of speed when it comes to consumer finances and strives to make the process as fast and easy as possible.

There are a number of things that set it apart from other lenders. Lending Tower is among the few companies that allow borrowers to complete their loan applications entirely online in as little as five minutes. Customers are able to check their potential interest rate before they apply for the loan, without any effect on their credit score. They also benefit from some of the most competitive interest rates in the market, starting at 5.99%. Once approved, customers receive the funds in their account within two business days.

Furthermore, the company accepts a very wide range of applicants, regardless of their financial history. The bare minimum requirements to apply for a loan at Lending Tower include being 18 years of age and having a valid social security number.

Lending Tower is able to facilitate such easy access to loans since it's a technology-powered lender. In a process that doesn't require borrowers to be familiar with technology, they answer a few basic questions that allow the system to review their application before accessing their potential interest rate and loan options.

However, the extraordinary convenience it offers has prompted people to ask, “Is Lending Tower legitimate?”.

In response to this, Sami Othman, CEO of Lending Tower, has this to say, “Lending Tower is a Better Business Bureau accredited company and one of the only few on the platform without a single complaint to its name. We're delighted to have helped thousands of customers across the U.S. achieve their financial goals. It's a point of pride for us that we're able to offer the level of ease and comfort we do. Debt and borrowing is often a vicious cycle that feeds itself; it's not uncommon to see people borrowing money to pay off debt and end up deeper in debt — or worse yet, simply be denied funding because they have a poor credit score. We believe in giving people a fair chance and we established Lending Tower precisely so that customers can have easy access to loans on terms that they're comfortable with.”

Indeed, every loan applicant at Lending Tower receives multiple loan options curated from reputed lenders nationwide. This allows customers to choose the best fit for their needs in addition to paying some of the lowest interest rates in the industry.

Borrowers can use a personal loan from Lending Tower for anything from debt consolidation to covering medical costs, improving their home, paying for a vacation, planning a wedding, dealing with financial emergencies, and more.
