

RIIZE the Rising K-Pop Band Is Here to Show their Charm With One of Their New Song 'Boom Boom Bass'

The upcoming K-pop boy band RIIZE is here with their first mini album containing a sizzling and groovy number 'Boom Boom Bass' and it's taking the world on a spin.

Fairfax, Virginia Jun 28, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - The music world has been taken over by the sudden appreciation for Korean Pop bands or K-pop. It has become so much popular that various kinds of merchandise of these bands are being sold and bought in huge numbers. In this ever-changing scene, the world has seen the rise of different bands like MONSTA X, NCT, SHINee, and the most popular of them all BTS in the sphere of boy bands or all-male bands. Amidst this crowd of vibrancy and popping beats a new name has been gaining a lot of attention these days the band is called RIIZE. The band consists of six extremely talented Korean artists who are being adored by their recent yet huge number of fans from all over the world, especially from the ladies.

As this band is clearly a part of Generation Z their creation reflects the thoughts, emotions, and the ups and downs the Gen Z goes through. The band has come forward with their latest creation, their first mini album 'RIIZING' which had made a sales of a million after the first week of its release. This has set a record as their first single album 'Get A Guitar' had also achieved a million sales. Their song 'Boom Boom Bass' was launched on YouTube just 9 days ago and within this short period, it has gained more than 263,000 likes and around 20,000 comments from their fans. Apart from the normal mass all over the world, the band has been praised many times by one of the most talented and popular actors, Byeon Woo-seok known for his commendable performance in 'Moonshine'.

The new song is a burst of funky, fresh new beats with memorable dancing sequences and of course, filled with the member's boyish charms. As it is clear from the name 'Boom Boom Bass', the song is a celebration of music as a whole. The lyrics and the pumping bass line along with the electric riffs celebrate the art of creating music, composing songs just to express the singers' desire to make musical tracks. The song was a definite hit in Korea and a pop-up store concerning the band RIIZE's new song was opened which lasted up to 10 days with a crowd of over 2000 people per day. This song can be found on YouTube and the band can be visited on its social media profile on Weibo, TikTok, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and their official website.

Watch this music video on YouTube:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=78lNnCItcBM>

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : RIIZE

See on IssueWire