Former Law Enforcement Officer and Outdoor Enthusiast Brings Winning Mindset to Real Estate

New York City, New York Jun 5, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Steven Buttles, a dedicated realtor with United Country H5 Auction & Realty, is bringing his wealth of experience and passion for real estate to serve clients in the Longview, Texas area. Specializing in hunting and timberland properties, country homes with land, farms, and ranches, his expertise extends from East Texas to the Dallas/Ft. Worth area.

Transitioning from a career in law enforcement to real estate, Steven is dedicated to guiding individuals and families through their real estate endeavors with a heart rooted in service. Alongside his loving wife, two kids, and two four-legged companions, Steven and his family made a bold move from the scenic landscapes of Letchworth, New York to East Texas, showcasing their adventurous spirit and openness to new opportunities.

Beyond his role as a licensed realtor, Steven is an avid outdoorsman and seasoned hunter. He has explored the vast wilderness of Canada, the rugged landscapes of Utah, and served as a hunting guide in Kansas. These experiences have deepened his appreciation for the great outdoors and the importance of finding the perfect place to call home.

Drawing from his background in law enforcement and outdoor pursuits, Steven brings a winning mindset to real estate. As a former assistant football coach, he led a high school team to their first-ever state championship, instilling values of teamwork, dedication, and the importance of guiding others towards success.

When not assisting clients in their real estate journey, Steven enjoys supporting his wife, a softball coach, and cheering on his daughters at the ballfield as their biggest fan.

Whether you are searching for a home with outdoor space, proximity to nature reserves, or acreage for your own outdoor pursuits, Steven Buttles is committed to making your real estate journey seamless and enjoyable. Contact him today to explore your real estate needs and find the perfect property to create lasting memories.
