A French Touch in D.C. Real Estate: Veronique Onteniente's Unwavering Commitment to Clients

New York City, New York Jun 13, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Veronique Onteniente, a distinguished realtor at TTR Sotheby's International Realty in Washington, D.C., is set to extend her seven years of real estate expertise from Virginia and D.C. and is planning on extending her services into the charming state of Maryland by the end of the year. With a firm belief that one's home is a sanctuary deserving of the utmost care and attention, Veronique is dedicated to ensuring that every client's real estate experience is nothing short of seamless and exceptional.

As a homeowner herself, Veronique understands that a home is not just a physical space but a place where cherished memories are made, and she possesses an innate ability to identify and fulfill her clients' desires for their dream properties. Her unparalleled gift for customer service, coupled with her intuitive understanding of her clients' needs and wants, has made her a beloved figure in the real estate industry, garnering a loyal following of satisfied clients.

Hailing from the picturesque South of France, between Carcassonne and Beziers, Veronique's early years were imbued with a love for the arts, particularly ballet dancing and classical music, which in turn inspired her poetry. Her love for French cuisine and cooking stemmed from her mother, while her father's background as a banker, insurance broker, and real estate agent gave her exposure to exceptional customer service and the hospitality industry.

Venturing to the United States in the early 1990s, Veronique thrived in the hospitality business. Her strength and determination quickly moved her up to managing several esteemed restaurants in Washington D.C. over the course of 26 years, allowing her to indulge her love of good food and fine wines.

Encouraged by her daughter, Marine Sang and mentors, Alfredo Escamilla and Fleur Howgill, Veronique transitioned into the world of real estate, a decision deeply influenced by her upbringing. Her genuine care for people, altruistic nature, positive energy, and heartfelt dedication to her work reflect her exceptional customer service skills and her passion for building connections with others.

Residing in the vibrant Shirlington area of Virginia, with prior roots in Capitol Hill, Veronique cherishes spending quality time with her daughter, Marine Sang, and their beloved dog when she is not assisting clients. Her love for swimming, countryside excursions, wine tastings, culinary explorations, and cooking with friends reflects her zest for life.
