

Branded Studios and Searchlight Productions Host Exclusive Press Screening for Car and Country Quest

London Press Screening launching New Automotive Travel Series 'Car and Country Quest'

London, United Kingdom Jul 26, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Branded Studios and Searchlight Productions proudly held an exclusive press screening for their highly anticipated six-part television series, 'Car and Country Quest,' on July 25, 2024, at the Soho Hotel in London. The event showcased the exciting new series, starring Racing Driver Freddie Hunt (son of legendary Formula One driver James Hunt), Host and Creator Deepak Narendran, Automotive Enthusiast Ashique Tahir, and guest starring Racing Driver Mathias Lauda (son of world champion Niki Lauda)

The screening took place in the Soho Hotel's elegant screening rooms and Crimson Bar, creating an intimate and engaging atmosphere for the attendees. The event attracted a host of stars and influencers, including Charlene Douglas, Chaly DN, Paula London, and The Southampton Girl Ellisha-Jade.

'Car and Country Quest' is an innovative automotive travel series that combines the thrill of driving stunning vehicles, immersive cultural and travel experiences, with the beauty of the countryside. The series features breathtaking landscapes, iconic vehicles, and the personal stories of the hosts, making it a unique visual treat.

The event was hosted by the series' director, Charlotte Fantelli, who introduced the screening and facilitated a lively Q&A session with stars Freddie Hunt and Deepak Narendran. During the Q&A, Hunt and Narendran shared their experiences filming the series, the challenges they faced, and their excitement about the show's upcoming premiere.

Freddie Hunt expressed his enthusiasm for the project, stating, "Working on 'Car and Country Quest' has been an incredible journey. We've explored some of the most beautiful parts of the country, driven amazing cars, and created something truly special. I can't wait for audiences to join us on this adventure."

The press screening received positive feedback from attendees, who praised the series for its stunning visuals, engaging storytelling, and the chemistry between the hosts. The event set the stage for a successful series launch, generating significant buzz and anticipation.

'Car and Country Quest' is set to premiere in the Enzo Ferrari Museum, Modena in September this year, after which it will be released worldwide. For more information about the series and upcoming episodes, please keep up to date with the show on social media.

About Branded Studios and Searchlight Productions:

Branded Studios are leaders in innovative content creation, specialising in automotive high-quality television series and films. With a focus on storytelling, visual excellence, and engaging content, they continue to push the boundaries of entertainment.

Searchlight Productions is the creator of the Car and Country franchise and continues to work closely with Branded to oversee the creation of the show.

For more information please visit <https://www.brandedstudios.co.uk>

Branded Studios

sarah@brandedstudios.co.uk

Source : Branded Studios

See on IssueWire