Where Expertise Meets Heart: A Realtor's Journey of Professional Excellence and Philanthropy

New York City, New York Jul 9, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Westport, Connecticut - Hyleri Katzenberg, a well-respected figure in the real estate industry with a career spanning over three decades, stands at the helm of Luxe Latitudes, a thriving real estate team she co-leads with her husband, Marc Katzenberg. With a bustling family that includes seven children and six grandchildren, Hyleri seamlessly balances her professional success with her personal life.

As a second-generation realtor and a graduate of UCLA, Hyleri's journey in real estate began at the young age of 18 in her mother's brokerage. Since settling in Connecticut in 1997, she has honed her expertise in the local market, particularly in sought-after areas like Greenwich, Fairfield, and Westport. Specializing in guiding clients through the transition from urban living to the tranquil suburbs of Fairfield County, Hyleri's profound knowledge of the region, its stunning coastline, diverse culinary scene, and proximity to New York City, sets her apart in the industry.

Renowned for her client-centric approach, meticulous attention to detail, and unwavering commitment to client welfare, Hyleri is adept at devising cutting-edge marketing strategies and advocating fiercely for her clients' interests. Her exceptional performance is underscored by her Real Trends verification and the distinction of being recognized as a 5-star professional.

In addition to her real estate endeavors, Hyleri co-hosts the popular podcast, "Keeping It Real with Mark and Hyleri," where she imparts valuable insights drawn from her extensive career. A dedicated philanthropist, she is the founder of the Belle Foundation, a charitable organization that offers aid to children with vascular deformities. Her philanthropic endeavors have taken her to prestigious platforms, including meetings with the Pope and a visit to the White House during the Clinton administration.

Looking ahead, Hyleri is enthusiastic about expanding her team and assisting clients in achieving their real estate aspirations. In her personal life, she treasures moments spent with her large family, emphasizing the significance of nurturing strong relationships both in her professional and personal spheres.
