

Infectious Disease Specialist Michael Williams, DO, Brings Expertise & Concern to AIDS Healthcare Foundation in Brooklyn

Dedicated to Serving Under-Served Populations

New York City, New York Jul 1, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Williams, a highly skilled infectious disease specialist, is currently affiliated with the AIDS Healthcare Foundation in Brooklyn, providing quality care to under-served populations, including LGBTQ+ and minority communities.

With a strong background in primary care and infectious disease management, he has dedicated his career to improving the health outcomes of those in need. His educational journey includes obtaining a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine Degree from Nova Southeastern University, followed by a residency in internal medicine at Mount Sinai Medical Center in Miami Beach. He further honed his skills through a fellowship in infectious disease at the prestigious Mount Sinai Health System.

Board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in Internal Medicine, Dr. Williams is well-equipped to handle a wide range of infectious diseases and provide comprehensive care to his patients. His approach to medicine is not only rooted in clinical expertise but also in compassion and understanding, particularly for marginalized communities who often face barriers to healthcare access.

In addition to his clinical role, he actively volunteers his time at community health events and outreach programs, advocating for increased awareness and education on infectious diseases, including HIV/AIDS.
