Expertise and Unique Marketing Strategies drive this Argyle, TX Realtor's success in Equestrian Estates, Ranch & Land Sales

New York City, New York Jul 12, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Kim Hunter, a top-producing realtor with Compass Equestrian and Compass Ranch & Land divisions, is known in the Dallas/Fort Worth real estate market for her specialization in land, equestrian estate properties, luxury homes on acreage, legacy ranches, and private sales.

A 25-year resident of the Argyle/Bartonville area - and an avid horse horse breeder of Eventing and Jumper horses, Kim brings a deep connection to the regional horse community. Her commitment to her clients is unwavering, providing them with a comprehensive understanding of the market and innovative strategies to ensure their properties stand out.

Kim's unique background spans over two decades in broadcast sales and management, with prestigious companies such as Disney and ABC. Her professional journey includes being one of the 15 women (out of 10,000 candidates) selected by ABC to attend the Simmons Graduate School of Management in Boston. This elite program, crafted from Harvard Business School case studies, provided her with a robust foundation in advertising, economics, and global market strategies.

Kim's detail-oriented approach and continuous pursuit of knowledge ensure she remains at the forefront of market trends, delivering exceptional results for her clients. In her 10th year in Real Estate, she's considered a Land specialist, sought for her successful sales history - particularly in private sales. She attributes her success to a marketing background that trained her to look at global & monetary policy trends in addition to market comparables. She includes lifestyle trends as well before crafting tailored marketing plans to target identified key buyer groups.

Beyond her professional achievements, Kim is an avid equestrian and horse breeder, residing in the picturesque town of Argyle, just 30 miles northwest of Dallas, with her husband, two rescue dogs, and her Trakehner horses. Each spring, her neighbors eagerly anticipate the arrival of new foals, adding a touch of charm to the community.
