Accomplished Realtor Larry Poor Brings Unique Expertise to Walter & Associates in Tulsa

New York City, New York Jul 24, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Walter & Associates proudly welcomes Larry Poor, a seasoned Realtor with a diverse background that sets him apart in the industry. With a strong foundation in engineering and business, Larry's journey from founding a successful software development company to thriving in the real estate sector showcases his adaptability and ingenuity.

After obtaining his engineering degree and MBA, Larry ventured into entrepreneurship by establishing a software company specializing in student information systems. Through his visionary leadership, the company grew to employ a team of 15 individuals before Larry made the strategic decision to sell its intellectual property rights in 2003. This bold move paved the way for Larry to transition seamlessly into the world of real estate.

Drawing from his experience in company development, accounting systems setup, and meticulous process design, Larry brings a unique perspective to his role at Walter & Associates. His expertise in website and software development, including mobile applications, coupled with a deep understanding of marketing strategies, positions him as a forward-thinker in the digital age.

In addition to his technical prowess, Larry holds licenses as an Independent Insurance Adjuster and Real Estate Sales Associate, further enhancing his ability to provide comprehensive services to his clients. Known for his attention to detail and methodical approach, Larry excels in project management, technical writing, and documentation, ensuring that every aspect of a transaction is meticulously handled.

Larry's commitment to planning and accountability is evident in his diverse skill set, which includes financial services such as accounting setup, website design and development, operating and technical process design, and proficient database management. His dedication to excellence and innovative thinking make him a valuable asset to Walter & Associates and the real estate community at large.

For clients seeking a Realtor who combines technical expertise with a creative approach, Larry Poor is the ideal choice. His passion for delivering exceptional results and his unwavering commitment to client satisfaction make him a standout professional in the competitive world of real estate.
