Longtime Manager of the Late Great Grammy Award Winner Coolio, Saxophonist Jarez, Releases New Single "Coming Back Around" Featuring Julian Vaughn on Bass

Las Vegas, Nevada Jul 21, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Acclaimed saxophonist Jarez, known for his role as the longtime manager of the late Grammy Award-winning artist Coolio, is thrilled to announce the release of his new smooth jazz single, "Coming Back Around." Featuring the masterful Julian Vaughn on bass, this highly anticipated track is now available for download and streaming on all major music platforms.

"Coming Back Around" marks the second collaboration between Jarez and Vaughn, following the phenomenal success of their first song "24 Hours," which soared to number #1 on SmoothJazz.com charts and reached number #6 on the Billboard Smooth Jazz charts. This new single promises to captivate audiences with its seamless blend of soulful melodies and intricate rhythms.

Jarez has long been celebrated for his ability to push the boundaries of jazz, and "Coming Back Around" is no exception. The track reflects his dedication to evolving his sound while staying true to the essence of jazz. Vaughn's deep and resonant bass lines complement Jarez's saxophone prowess, resulting in a harmonious and captivating musical experience.

"I am incredibly excited to share 'Coming Back Around' with the world," said Jarez. "Working with Julian Vaughn again has been an amazing experience, and his talent truly shines through on this track. I believe this single will resonate with jazz lovers and music enthusiasts alike."

Julian Vaughn, a prominent figure in the contemporary jazz scene, brings his signature style and expertise to the collaboration. Known for his dynamic performances and deep understanding of the genre, Vaughn's involvement in "Coming Back Around" elevates the single to new heights.

To celebrate the release, Jarez is planning a series of virtual events, including live performances and Q&A sessions with fans. These events will provide a unique opportunity for listeners to engage with the artist and gain deeper insights into the creation of the single.

"Coming Back Around" is now available for download on iTunes and streaming on all major platforms. Don't miss the chance to experience this mesmerizing blend of saxophone and bass by two of the most talented musicians in the jazz world.
