She brings over 35 years of sales and marketing expertise to her role as a trusted advisor for clients navigating significant life changes, whether growing their business or supporting families with seniors.

With a Bachelor of Science Degree in Organizational Behavior from the University of San Francisco, Lynn combines her academic background with her extensive industry experience to guide clients through the complexities of buying, selling, or investing in real estate. She manages every element of a home search or sale-from supervising staging and conceptualizing ads, video tours, and marketing plans to ordering inspections and leading negotiations.

Before transitioning to real estate, Lynn made significant contributions in the telecommunications sector, where she not only met but exceeded revenue targets for over three decades while spearheading the global expansion of the telecommunications market within the high-tech industry. She and her dedicated team at The Agency coordinate extensive marketing campaigns, handle escrow billing to eliminate out-of-pocket costs for clients, complete comprehensive disclosure packages to minimize seller risk, and host brokers' tours and open houses. This commitment to excellence typically results in her listings selling within ten days and often with multiple offers on the table.

Consistently ranking in the top 1.5% of Realtors nationwide for the past five years, Lynn's stellar reputation precedes her. Recognized for her honesty, integrity, and loyalty, she is celebrated by both colleagues and clients alike for her exceptional consulting skills and ability to deliver top-notch results in every transaction she undertakes.

A fourth-generation Bay Area resident who has lived in Los Altos for nearly four decades, Lynn is a dedicated community leader who embodies a deep commitment to giving back.
