

Radio Neshat Australia Arranged a Grand Event for the Persian-speaking Individuals

At a glorious and honorable night, Radio Neshat introduced outstanding Farsi-speaking community activists in various fields in Australia.

Melbourne, Victoria Jul 26, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Radio Neshat - Radio Neshat is the first and only 24/7 Radio, broadcasting in Farsi (Persian) language in Australia. It has arranged a Grand for the Persian-speaking individuals in Australia whose contributions have made progress in various fields. Mr. Masoud Zoohori, manager of Radio Neshat and executive director of this event helped to arrange this celebration that takes place once every two years in Australia. Attended by MPs, party leaders, mayors, state and federal police, firefighters, and other high-ranking Australian officials; this event caters to heroes who deserve more recognition.

Mr. Masoud Zoohori said, "Radio Neshat is approaching its twelfth year of media activity and we are delighted to have received an acceptable rating from the audiences and Australian citizens during this period." The goal of this event is to honor outstanding individuals in various fields. The event highlights the significant role and impact of the Farsi-speaking community in Australia. Influential Farsi-speaking activists in multiple fields such as sports, cinema, music, and economics are acknowledged through this event. It allows for creating more room and recognition for the honorable people.

Starting with sports, Mr. Alireza Faghani became the winner in this sector who is an international football referee and best known for his remarkable career. Mr. Salam Sangi and Ms. Faezeh Alavi became the winners in the field of cinema who are a veteran theater actor and a prominent actress respectively. Regarding arts, performance, and entertainment, Ms. Golareh Pour won in the field of music. She is a versatile and talented composer, musician, and singer. For successful entrepreneurship and business ideas, the managers of National Floors Company, Mr. Sahand Zohouri, Mr. Yousef Shaker, and Mr. Van Lal Mawi became the winners as entrepreneurs. The first Iranian female banker in Australia, Ms. Sonia Ghaneh, and the director of a shipping company Orion Shipping, Mr. Mohammad Sinaei have also been recognized for their notable works in their respective sectors.

Scientist and researcher in environmental sciences, Dr. Nasim Amiralian, and the inventor of new hair regrowth products, Dr. Hamid Hosseini have been recognized in the field of science and technology. Sports journalist Mr. Nima Shahrabi, presenter and reporter Ms. Nahid Emami, and lastly, the editor-in-chief of "Ofoq" magazine, Mr. Mohammad Zia Zia, are also recognized for their contribution to media. Tax expert Mr. Ryan Mizael, and Australian immigration experts namely Dr. Sirus Ahmadi and Mr. Amin Farzadeghi are recognized as senior experts with their years of contribution. Radio Neshat Australia does its research well. Find more details at <http://radioneshat.com/en>.

Media Contact

Radio Neshat

info@radioneshat.com

Source : Radio Neshat

See on IssueWire