Board Certified Ophthalmologist Specializing in Diseases and Surgery of the Macula, Retina, Vitreous, and Uveitis

New York City, New York Jul 9, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Spencer Langevin, MD, a highly skilled ophthalmologist, is an integral member of the prestigious team at The Bronx Eye Center, where he is dedicated to providing exceptional eye care services to the community. With a specialization in vitreoretinal surgery, uveitis, and ocular oncology, he brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his practice.

Born and raised in Syracuse, New York, Dr. Langevin's journey to becoming a renowned ophthalmologist began with his Bachelor of Science Degree in Exercise Science from Syracuse University, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude. He then pursued his Medical Degree at SUNY Upstate Medical University, laying a strong foundation for his medical career.

Dr. Langevin's extensive training includes completing his internship in internal medicine at Queens Hospital Center in Jamaica, New York, followed by a residency in ophthalmology at Nassau University Medical Center, where he served as chief resident. He further honed his skills through a fellowship at the Harkness Eye Institute at Columbia University, focusing on ocular oncology under the mentorship of Dr. Brian Marr. Dr. Langevin then completed a rigorous 2-year fellowship in vitreoretinal surgery and uveitis at Retina Consultants/Albany Medical Center in New York.

As a Diplomate of the American Board of Ophthalmology, an Associate Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and a member of prestigious ophthalmological societies, including the American Academy of Ophthalmology, the International Society of Ocular Oncology, the American Society of Retina Specialists, the New York State Ophthalmological Society, the American Medical Association, and the Pan-American Ocular Oncology Society, Dr. Langevin is committed to staying at the forefront of his field.

Beyond his clinical practice, Dr. Langevin is a prolific author and presenter, with numerous publications in peer-reviewed journals and contributions to textbook chapters on ocular oncology and retinal surgery. He is a sought-after speaker at local, national, and international conferences, where he shares his expertise and insights with fellow professionals.

In his leisure time, Dr. Langevin enjoys quality moments with his wife and children, playing golf, and passionately supporting sports teams like the Buffalo Bills, New York Mets, and Syracuse Orange.

For patients seeking specialized eye care services from a compassionate and dedicated ophthalmologist, Dr. Spencer Langevin at The Bronx Eye Center is the trusted choice.
