

Victoria Carmack, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Bringing Extensive Experience and a Heart for Service to Tennessee's Real Estate Market

New York City, New York Jul 31, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Victoria Carmack, the principal broker and investor with the 1 Source Team by Keller Williams in Crossville, Tennessee, is a seasoned professional with a passion for serving her clients and community. Specializing in residential properties, waterfront properties, farms, and more, Victoria's commitment to excellence and dedication to her clients set her apart in the real estate industry.

With a Master's Degree in Nursing from Tennessee Technological University, Victoria brings a unique perspective to her real estate practice, combining compassion and attention to detail with a deep understanding of her clients' needs. Since 2003, she has been devoted to meeting the diverse requirements of residential clients, including buyers, sellers, and investors, with a specific focus on senior relocation and investment properties like short-term rentals. Additionally, she represents a local builder, managing custom and semi-custom new construction homes in Crossville and Cookeville.

Victoria's background in public relations, retail management, and nursing, spanning over 30 years, has equipped her with valuable skills in communication, care, and dedication. Her experience as a children's pastor and in the nursing field has shaped her approach to real estate, emphasizing the importance of listening, empathy, and building lasting relationships with her clients.

Recognized for her honesty, reliability, and collaborative approach, Victoria is known for her exceptional listening skills and adept negotiation abilities. Her motto, "listening well to serve better," underscores her dedication to achieving positive outcomes for her clients, facilitating seamless transactions and nurturing strong partnerships.

Victoria attributes her success to her faith, perseverance, and servant's heart. She has authored buyers and sellers guides, offered exclusively to her clients, to empower them with knowledge and insights for successful real estate transactions. Her positive attitude, unwavering support, and commitment to client success make her a trusted ally in the real estate market, dedicated to helping her clients reach their goals every step of the way.

Beyond her professional achievements, Victoria is actively involved in her community, serving as an ambassador for the local Chamber and supporting organizations like Big Brother and Big Sisters. Committed to making a difference and building enduring connections, she strives to live a purpose-driven life that extends beyond herself, embodying the values of service, integrity, and compassion.

In her leisure time, Victoria finds joy in people-oriented activities, such as church events and volunteering to help those in need. She also enjoys spending time outdoors, reading, especially the Bible, and pursuing continuous personal growth through learning. Victoria's multifaceted interests and unwavering dedication to her clients and community make her a standout figure in the real estate industry, setting a standard of excellence and service for others to follow.
