

Amber Berry, MD, CAQSM, FAAP: Leading Sports Medicine Specialist at Northside Hospital Orthopedic Institute

Providing Comprehensive Orthopedic Care for All Ages in Marietta, Georgia

New York City, New York Aug 12, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - A fellowship-trained primary care sports medicine physician with a specialization in pediatrics and musculoskeletal medicine, Dr. Berry brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise in diagnostic ultrasound, regenerative medicine, and a holistic approach to sports coverage. Her practice at Northside Hospital Orthopedic Institute in East Cobb focuses on treating orthopedic conditions in both children and adults. She offers a wide range of services, including the management of sprains, fractures, ligament/tendon injuries, sports-related illnesses, and concussions.

Moreover, she is dedicated to helping patients return to their optimal level of function, with a particular interest in overuse injuries and prevention, sports nutrition, fracture management, and overall athlete care.

Originally from Valdosta, Georgia, Dr. Berry has a strong background in sports, having been a varsity football and basketball cheerleader at Lowndes High School. She is deeply committed to caring for athletes and pediatric patients in Georgia, drawing from her extensive experience gained during her residency at Baylor College of Medicine and Texas Children's Hospital and fellowship training at Northside Hospital. She has served as a team physician for Walton High School football and has covered Georgia State University football, basketball, and soccer.

Recognized as a Fellow of both the American Academy of Pediatrics (FAAP), and the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine (FAMSSM), she is a staunch advocate for diversity and inclusion in medicine, focusing on serving underserved populations and addressing health disparities. Her specialized training in addressing health disparities aligns with her goal of bridging the gap between sports medicine and public health, creating a more inclusive and accessible healthcare environment.

Beyond sports, she enjoys music, hosting gatherings, exercising, and exploring diverse cuisines.
