We are dedicated to redefining sophistication with gems and designer pieces sourced with integrity, crafting creations that surpass fleeting trends.

A Name that Radiates Elegance and Distinction

Inspired by "Svelte," meaning elegantly slender, and "Candere," signifying glow and brilliance, Svelandre is a tribute to refined beauty and unparalleled uniqueness. Each Svelandre creation embodies more than mere adornment—it is a manifestation of sophistication and individuality, meticulously designed to enchant and inspire.

A Legacy of Unmatched Quality and Authenticity

As a direct-to-customer affiliate of our esteemed parent company, Svelandre draws upon two decades of expertise to deliver superior-quality stones directly from mines to India. This direct sourcing guarantees that our gemstones and designs possess unmatched quality, providing both aesthetic splendor and metaphysical benefits. Every piece is meticulously handcrafted by skilled artisans in India, merging rich heritage with modern design sensibilities.

The Owner's Passion for Gemstones

At the heart of Svelandre is a profound love for gemstones. Our founder's passion for these natural marvels drives every creation, infusing each piece with a deep appreciation for their beauty and significance. This genuine enthusiasm ensures that every Svelandre piece not only exemplifies exquisite craftsmanship but also reflects a personal connection to the artistry and magic of gemstones.

Sustainability is the cornerstone of Svelandre's philosophy. From responsible sourcing to eco-friendly manufacturing and packaging, each stage is carefully executed to minimize environmental impact.
