

Dusty Calderon, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

A Leader in Land Sales and Ranch Management at SVN Saunders Ralston Dantzler Real Estate

expertise in land, ranch, and farm sales. With a wealth of experience in ranch and grove management, development project management, the intricacies of land sales and acquisitions, and entitlement processes, Dusty is the go-to advisor for clients navigating the complexities of the real estate market.

In 2021 alone, Dusty closed nearly $200 million in property transactions, showcasing his remarkable ability to facilitate high-stakes negotiations. Among his impressive listings are a staggering 12,098-acre ranch and recreational property in Levy County and a 3,707-acre ranch and timberland tract in Tennille. Additionally, Dusty is actively brokering several prime development properties in Osceola County, alongside a $1 million property in New Mexico and a 293-acre ranch in Oklahoma. Notably, he recently finalized the sale of Green Island Ranch, a 5,977-acre family legacy property in Osceola County, for an impressive $150 million.

Dusty's roots run deep in Florida, being a 6th-generation native from a pioneering family in Osceola County. His lifelong connection to ranching began as a child, when he honed his skills by trailing cattle on horseback. His dedication to the cowboy lifestyle also took him to McNeese State University on a bull riding scholarship, where he excelled in intercollegiate competitions, ranking 3rd in the southern region for two consecutive years.

Beyond Florida, Dusty's extensive network allows him to broker properties across the Southwest, the Deep South, the Midwest, and even internationally in South America. His diverse clientele includes ranchers, farmers, timber companies, investors, and conservationists, among many others, all benefiting from his comprehensive understanding of the real estate landscape.

Dusty is not just a successful real estate advisor; he is also deeply committed to his community and various organizations. His affiliations include the Florida Cattlemen's Association, Silver Spurs Riding Club, the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, and the National Audubon Society. Moreover, he is a lifetime member of American Bucking Bull, Inc., a Professional Bull Riders stock contractor, serves on the Honorary Sheriff's Board, and is a founding board member for the Harmony Pop Warner Youth Football and Cheer League.

When not closing deals, Dusty is passionate about his cowboy heritage, as he enjoys working with cattle, breaking colts, hunting, fishing, as well as spending quality time with his family. He and his wife, Lucrecia, have been married since 1994 and have three children and a granddaughter. Together, they embody the values of hard work and community dedication, attending City of Life Church in Kissimmee, Florida.
