Location: Cherokee Casino and Resort in Cherokee, NC

Booth: 57

Emeritus is dedicated to enhancing healthcare operations through specialized maintenance services that ensure hospital beds and medical equipment are always in top-notch condition. Recognized for their expertise and commitment to quality, Emeritus's presence at the NCBA Conference is a chance for healthcare professionals to discover the latest advancements in hospital bed maintenance.

Visitors to the Emeritus booth will have the opportunity to learn about our innovative Bed Maintenance 2.0 program, including our Always Onsite and Power of One bed services. These programs are designed to enhance hospital operations by ensuring that bed maintenance is handled swiftly and effectively, directly at the facility. Attendees will also enjoy a hands-on demonstration of our cutting-edge hospital bed chargers, essential for keeping vital devices powered and operational. The first 100 visitors will receive a free bed charger, a valuable tool for any healthcare setting aiming to boost patient experience and operational efficiency.

"We are thrilled to be part of the NCBA Conference and look forward to connecting with fellow healthcare professionals," said a Spokesperson at Emeritus. "Our goal is to help hospitals optimize their bed maintenance programs, and we're excited to share how our services can make a significant impact on their operations. Don't miss the chance to stop by our booth, learn more about what we offer, and walk away with one of our exclusive bed chargers."

Emeritus's participation in the NCBA Conference is part of their ongoing commitment to support healthcare facilities in delivering high-quality patient care. By focusing on the maintenance and efficiency of hospital beds, Emeritus helps ensure that healthcare providers have the reliable resources they need to succeed.
