EXOTIC INDIA'S COLLECTION OF TRADITIONAL NEPALESE STATUES

Roseville, Minnesota Aug 22, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Working to preserve India's heritage and culture through art and craft rooted in Indian history, Exotic India Art has created a curated category of statues- made with ancient material, using classical sculptural techniques, and crafted for modern lovers of art. A category worth exploring on their website is the Nepalese statue collection, which is taken from traditional artists residing in the Himalayan country

Nepalese statues, a beautiful culture of religious art, are known worldwide for the glowing golden finish, expressive faces of Buddha, Bodhisattva, gods, and goddesses, and intricate details, which make the metal- copper, appear animated.

The technique of Nepalese statues is passed from one generation to the next, resulting in a long tradition of statues that look perfect and mirror the divine beauty of historic sculptures. The copper statue is sculpted using the archaic lost-wax technique, after which a layer of gold is applied on the surface using the method of gilding, which gives these sculptures their unique look.

"It is a pleasure to be a part of the vision of making Indian art and culture reach the global stage. We aim to be a home to everything connected with our country's historical traditions. Nepalese statues are representative of Buddhism and Hinduism, two of India's ancient religions, and an example of the artistic heritage of the subcontinent that goes beyond modern boundaries", says Yash Goel, CEO, of Exotic India.

The collection of Exotic India has Buddha statues, icons of Bodhisattvas, images of guardian deities of Vajrayana - Tibetan Buddhism, sculptures of Hindu gods and goddesses worshipped in Nepal valley, and traditional ritual objects. For the followers of Buddhism, the collector looking for the next masterpiece, or the lover of art, this section is a good place to visit and explore and experience the splendor of Nepal's golden sculptures.
