

Family Physician Steven A. Gest, MD Leads the Way in Occupational Medicine and Telehealth Innovations

Driving Advancement In Workplace Health and Safety

New York City, New York Aug 26, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - A distinguished family physician with extensive experience, Dr. Gest is the CEO, Founder, and Medical Director of Emeryville Occupational Medical Center in California. He is committed to enhancing workplace health and safety through comprehensive occupational medicine services.

Education-wise, he graduated from Thomas Jefferson University in 1985 and is board-certified in both family medicine (AAMS) and emergency medicine (AAPS). With thirteen years of experience in emergency medicine practice and management, he has transitioned his focus entirely to occupational medicine, where he has made significant contributions to injury prevention and treatment in the workplace. His expertise has made him a valued advisor and sought-after speaker in the field, sharing his knowledge at various conferences and seminars.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Gest is recognized as a pioneer in the field of telemedicine. As an active member of the American Telemedicine Association, he has advocated for the integration of technology in healthcare, ensuring that patients have access to quality medical care regardless of their location. His commitment to utilizing telehealth solutions reflects his dedication to modernizing occupational health practices and improving patient outcomes.

Moreover, he is the Owner and Medical Director of Physicians' Utilization Review Medical Group, where he focuses on the critical assessment of medical necessity and appropriateness of healthcare services. This role underscores his commitment to ensuring that patients receive the most effective and efficient care possible, while also supporting healthcare providers in making informed decisions.
