Committed to Patient Care and Cardiovascular Health

New York City, New York Aug 20, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Kett has been a prominent figure in the field of cardiology for over 26 years, providing exceptional medical care to patients in Connecticut. As a distinguished member of Franklin Medical Group Cardiology and Saint Mary's Hospital, he combines extensive clinical expertise with a deep commitment to improving cardiovascular health in the community.

Throughout his academic career, he earned his medical degree from SUNY Stony Brook before embarking on an extensive training journey that included an internship, residency, and dual fellowships in cardiology and angioplasty at New England Deaconess Hospital in Boston. His dedication to excellence during this period was recognized with the prestigious James L. Tullis Award, highlighting his exceptional skills and commitment to patient care. Additionally, he served as an Instructor in Medicine at Harvard Medical School, sharing his knowledge with the next generation of medical professionals.

Board certified in Internal Medicine and Cardiology, Dr. Kett has held numerous leadership positions throughout his career. Notably, he served as the Chairman of the Intersocietal Accreditation Commission's Board of Directors, emphasizing his commitment to maintaining high standards in cardiology practices. Currently, he is the Governor-elect of the American College of Cardiology's Connecticut Chapter Board of Governors, where he will continue to advocate for advancements in cardiovascular care and education.

Dr. Kett's clinical interests encompass a wide range of cardiovascular issues, with a particular focus on advanced diagnostics and treatments. He is known for his expertise in nuclear cardiology and is actively involved in programs at Hoffman Heart, where he applies cutting-edge technology to diagnose and treat heart conditions effectively. His patient-centered approach ensures that each individual receives personalized care tailored to their specific needs.

As Dr. Kett continues his practice at Franklin Medical Group Cardiology and Saint Mary's Hospital, he remains dedicated to enhancing the lives of his patients through innovative treatments and compassionate care. His unwavering commitment to the field of cardiology and the health of the community reinforces the importance of specialized cardiovascular care in Connecticut.
