He has performed extensively across the East Coast, garnered hundreds of thousands of views on various platforms, and been offered multiple record deals. Despite these opportunities, McClellan remains fiercely independent, recently securing a distribution deal with Symphonic Records.

His upcoming single, “LUV U 2MORO,” represents a significant milestone in his career. Produced by J-Stylz of Blackstreet and set to be released in summer 2024, this track is anticipated to showcase McClellan’s innovative style and musical versatility.
