New York City, New York Aug 29, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Olga Verschoore, a Residential Real Estate Sales Specialist with Compass Realty Group, is proud to lead the Keystone Home Team, an innovative force in the St. Louis real estate market. Licensed in 2012, Olga has earned a reputation for unparalleled service, characterized by respect, knowledge, and professionalism. Alongside her business partner, Lisa Hufford, the two founding agents of Keystone Homes bring a wealth of experience and a fresh perspective to real estate.

With a collective 15 years in the industry, Olga and Lisa are committed to redefining how real estate is conducted in the modern era. Their dynamic approach emphasizes authenticity, innovation, and client success, leveraging the latest in social media and artificial intelligence to create a more accessible and engaging buying and selling process. Whether through creative marketing strategies or personalized consultations, the Keystone Home Team is dedicated to meeting the unique needs of today's savvy clientele in an ever-evolving market.

Olga's journey in real estate began after she earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Missouri in Columbia. Initially, she spent four years in fine jewelry sales and consultation, where she developed a keen eye for detail and a client-focused approach. This experience paved the way for her transition into residential real estate, allowing her to blend her passion for art, decor, consulting, and sales.

Driven by a strong work ethic and supported by excellent mentorship from her broker, Jason Pashia, Olga takes immense pride in being part of monumental moments in her clients' lives. She understands the significance of these experiences, whether it's helping someone find their perfect engagement ring or guiding them to their dream home. Her commitment to making these processes as seamless and stress-free as possible is reflected in her long list of happy clients, many of whom return for subsequent needs and provide enthusiastic referrals to friends and family.

Recognized as a Top Producer in the industry, Olga is focused on continuous growth—both for her team and personally as she works toward obtaining her Broker's license. Balancing her career with family life, she enjoys exploring new restaurants and participating in local trivia nights and charity events with her husband. A self-described foodie and audiobook enthusiast, Olga currently resides in St. Peters, Missouri, with her husband, two young children, and their two dogs, embracing all that the St. Louis area has to offer.
