Pari_Ek Ansuni Kahani is a powerful and moving musical short film that explores the tragic story of a little girl whose dreams of becoming a pilot and living a happy life are cruelly taken away by a heinous act. Directed by Trilochan Naik, the film delves deep into the emotional journey of Pari, a young girl who, even after death, continues to tell her story, urging society to ensure that no one else endures the same fate.

Featuring poignant performances by Charu Bisen as Pari, Roshani Laxane as her mother, and Milind Rangari as her father, the film touches on themes of innocence, loss, and the importance of justice. The evocative lyrics by Amaan Shah, coupled with the hauntingly beautiful music composed by Amaan Shah, Shantanu Nandan, and Amit Padhye, and sung by Pinank Bandhu, elevate the film's emotional impact. Jerry Pundakar's cinematography captures the essence of the story, making Pari_Ek Ansuni Kahani not just a film but a poignant plea against the atrocities faced by innocent children.
