A Journey from Immigrant Dreamers to Digital Innovators

Niko Dimitri's story is deeply personal for his creators, Rolando Jr. Pepano and co-founder Rey Allan Lim. Their path to innovation began as immigrants striving for a better life in Canada, overcoming challenges that tested their resilience and resolve. From humble beginnings in photo restoration to the creation of a design agency, their journey was marked by determination, creativity, and an unyielding passion for digital art.

The inspiration for Niko Dimitri came from a poignant moment in Rolando's life, where a personal family love story—his parents'—deeply influenced his work. This heartfelt narrative, coupled with a desire to push the boundaries of digital media, led to the birth of Niko Dimitri—a tribute to love, resilience, and the power of technology to tell stories that connect globally.
