

Robert Bryson Hall, Sr. Challenges Racial Divides with New Single “Tell Me Why”

Dover, Delaware Aug 21, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Robert Bryson Hall, Sr., father of the renowned rapper Logic, is set to release a powerful new single titled “Tell Me Why” on the 1st of next month. This track offers a compelling message about overcoming racial divides and addressing gun violence, urging young people to rise above superficial differences.

In “Tell Me Why,” Hall, Sr. addresses the critical issue of gun violence while also challenging listeners to reconsider the significance of race. Through poignant lyrics, he poses the question, “Which color would you choose, black or white?” to emphasize that racial differences should not be the basis for conflict or division.

“This song is about unity and understanding,” Hall, Sr. explains. “It’s not about the color of our skin, but about coming together as a community to end violence and make positive changes. I want to use my music to promote peace and encourage young people to look beyond race and work towards a better future.”

The upcoming release of “Tell Me Why” is a significant moment for Hall, Sr., as it highlights his commitment to using his voice for social justice and change. The song will be available on all major platforms, including SyncNTune radio station, where it will serve as a powerful reminder of the importance of unity and the urgent need to address violence in our communities.
