

Robin S. Johnstone, PhD, NCSP: A Leading Psychologist in Louisville, Kentucky

Specializing in Learning Disorders and Mental Health

New York City, New York Aug 21, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - An experienced psychologist, Dr. Johnstone sees patients at her private practice in Louisville, Kentucky, where she specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of learning disorders and mental health conditions in children and adolescents aged 3 to 18 years.

With over 40 years of experience, she is committed to providing comprehensive care tailored to the individual needs of her patients. Her areas of expertise include the diagnosis of various learning disorders such as dyslexia, dysgraphia, and dyscalculia, as well as Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and anxiety disorders. Her extensive training and compassionate approach allow her to effectively assist children and their families in navigating the complexities of these challenges.

Drawing upon her Ph.D. from Northwestern University, obtained in 1994, Dr. Johnstone employs evidence-based practices and the latest research to inform her treatment plans. Her personalized strategies not only address academic difficulties but also promote emotional resilience and overall well-being.

On a professional level, she is an active member of several prestigious professional organizations, including the National Association of School Psychologists, the Kentucky Association of School Psychologists, and the Learning Disabilities Association.

In addition to her clinical practice, Dr. Johnstone is passionate about raising awareness regarding learning disorders and mental health issues in the community. She regularly conducts workshops and seminars aimed at educating parents, teachers, and healthcare providers on recognizing the signs of learning difficulties and implementing effective interventions.
