

Ana Anastasia Martin, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

A Dynamic Force in Dallas-Fort Worth Real Estate: Ana's Passion and Commitment Drive the Future of the Vibrant Metroplex

New York City, New York Sep 4, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Ana Anastasia Martin, an esteemed realtor with Dave Perry-Miller Real Estate, is making waves in the Dallas real estate market with her exceptional service and dedication to client success. Her appreciation for the efforts of Turtle Creek Association in beautifying and revitalizing the land reflects her deep commitment to enhancing community appeal and desirability.

Known for her go-getter attitude and straightforward approach, Ana thrives on achieving her clients' real estate goals, always prioritizing their needs above all else. Specializing in luxury residential properties and commercial leases, she boasts a vast network of connections that spans from Los Angeles to Dallas.

Originally from Moscow, Ana immigrated to the United States in 1990, bringing with her a rich cultural background and a strong work ethic cultivated through her childhood career in ice skating, where she ranked as a Junior Olympian. Her musical talents were also nurtured at the Tchaikovsky Conservatory in Moscow. Ana later earned a Degree in Finance and Business Administration, positioning her well for a successful career in real estate.

Fluent in English, Russian, and Armenian, Ana has previously lived in New York, Boston, and Los Angeles before relocating to Dallas in 2021. This multicultural experience and her deep understanding of various real estate markets allow her to effectively assist clients relocating both locally and from other states.

Before joining Dave Perry Miller, Ana worked closely with major developers and builders, gaining invaluable insights from both seller and buyer perspectives. This wealth of experience not only enriches her service but also significantly benefits her clients as they navigate the complexities of real estate transactions. Currently, Ana works closely with the VP of Sales at Crescent Estates Custom Homes, Leo Amaya, and will soon be listing their brand new mid-rise luxury condominium in Turtle Creek, The Residences on Routh.

Ana attributes her success to authenticity, active listening, and applying the discipline and determination she honed as a Junior Olympic ice skater. Her dedication has earned her accolades such as "Most Closings in Queue" and recognition among the "Best 5 in Commercial Leases" in Dallas.

In her spare time, Ana enjoys playing pickleball with her boyfriend, spending time with family, and is passionate about supporting the local business community. With exceptional communication skills, expert market knowledge, and a stellar track record, Ana Anastasia Martin is the go-to choice for anyone seeking an outstanding real estate experience in Dallas.
