

Captured by Mallery Launches Maternity Photography Packages in Tampa

Captured by Mallery launches exclusive maternity photography packages in Tampa. Offering both studio and outdoor sessions, these photoshoots are designed to capture the unique glow and emotion of pregnancy in a way that mothers will treasure forever.

Tampa, Florida Sep 13, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Captured by Mallery, a leading maternity photographer in Tampa, is excited to announce the launch of new maternity photography packages, starting at an affordable price of $400. Led by professional photographer Mallery Denson, the studio offers both indoor and outdoor maternity sessions designed to capture the beauty and emotion of pregnancy.

With options for a tailored studio session or scenic outdoor locations like Lettuce Lake, Captured by Mallery provides a customized experience for every client. The packages include a one-hour photoshoot and five retouched images, with the flexibility to add more images or prints.

Mallery Denson remarked, "Every maternity session is special, and I love being able to offer both studio and outdoor settings to make each session unique. Whether we're in the studio or out enjoying Tampa's natural beauty, the goal is always to create lasting memories."
