"We are thrilled to recognize Country for A Cause with the Josie Show Humanitarian of the Year Award," said Josie Passantino-Boone, co-founder of the Josie Music Awards. "Their commitment to making a difference through music and community service embodies the spirit of this award."

"It's an honor for Country For A Cause to be named the Humanitarian of the Year at the Josie Music Awards during their 10th Anniversary show. This was our 10th Anniversary as well in June and such a huge milestone. Initially, we were helping individual families and then transitioned into a partnership with Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, and to watch it grow year after year has been amazing. It wouldn't be possible without the loyal, hardworking board members who all donate their time – Sherri Forrest, Roxane Atwood, Charlotte Sneed, Wes Schmitz, Marcia Campbell, and Dean Holman. T.G. Sheppard and Kelly Lang, along with Devon O'Day help us keep the show rolling as hosts and the unforgettable guests who agree year after year to perform, making the show even possible – This show has helped raise $230,000 – and we hope to just be getting started." said Scott Sexton
