Doreen Boggs: A Trusted Name in Residential Real Estate with a Military Touch

New York City, New York Sep 9, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Doreen Boggs, an esteemed residential REALTOR® with Coldwell Banker Elite, has built a remarkable reputation in Stafford, Virginia, known for her exceptional service, superb attention to detail, and unwavering commitment to clients. With a strong focus on clear and effective communication, Doreen has successfully guided countless buyers and sellers through the intricate processes of real estate transactions since 2003.

A graduate of Hawaii Pacific University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and a retired military officer with 23 years of active duty in the Marine Corps, Doreen possesses a unique understanding of the challenges that come with relocating and selling property. She specializes in military and corporate relocations, new home sales, first-time home buyers, sellers, and investors. Her dedication to her clients is evident in her approach, which emphasizes quality over quantity and personalized care tailored to individual needs.

Holding prestigious credentials as an Accredited Buyer Representative and Military Relocation Professional, Doreen leverages the latest technology and market trends, providing superior service and ensuring that her clients are equipped with the up-to-date market knowledge necessary to make informed decisions. Her meticulous attention to detail and extensive experience have garnered her numerous accolades, including the 2024 International Diamond Society and Emerald Club awards and being named a "Virginia Living Magazine Top Realtor."

Doreen's success in real estate can be attributed to the invaluable skills and discipline she acquired during her military career, including perseverance, personnel management, and leadership. She earned the Distinguished Rifleman Badge, a testament to her dedication and excellence, achieving a prestigious honor attained by only seven women at the time of her retirement.

Outside of her real estate endeavors, Doreen treasures quality time with her family and two grandsons. As a true lover of the water, she enjoys boating and jet skiing with her husband on the Potomac River. And no matter how busy life gets, she tries never to miss a sunset on the water, taking in the beauty of each day's end. She also finds joy in animals, cooking, gardening, and traveling, always in search of a new adventure.

For anyone seeking a dedicated and knowledgeable real estate professional in Stafford, Virginia, Doreen Boggs stands out as a trusted partner committed to ensuring a seamless and successful real estate experience.
