Maidstone, Kent Sep 12, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Award-winning and up-and-coming musical artist Equation Billionz released a new single, "Get It," featuring Riicch, an OVO Affiliate, on 23 August 2024. He specialises in hip-hop, rap, and Afrobeat music.

Equation Billionz began his music career at 13 but went professional at 16. He released his first single track, Faaji. At 17, he produced a song called Nowadays with Teni Makanaki, a renowned Nigerian singer and songwriter. Spotify recognised him with an award plaque for his work on his piece Benz.

"This new single encompasses a feel good, calm and chilled vibe," Equation Billionz said. "This new song has an upbeat rhythm, and I found the beat easy to write to. I had to add a catchy chorus to go with the vibe. I did so successfully."

"It has been an honour being given a chance showcase myself and my music," Equation Billionz said. "Now, I am continuing to push myself and develop my craft to keep creating more music for my supporters."

As his professional career continued to take off, Equation Billionz wrote additional music while in Atlanta, Georgia. He later traveled to Nigeria to shoot music videos for his pieces Aute and Benz. He recently flew to Canada to work on some forthcoming projects.

He headlined his own show at Baturey Brewer in Lagos Island, Nigeria, and Fela Shrine and Freedom Park in Lagos.

Equation Billionz's music has transcended borders, resonating with fans in the United Kingdom, USA, Canada, Nigeria, and Australia. His global appeal is a testament to the universal language of music.

Equation Billionz's new single, "Get It," is now available on major streaming platforms such as Spotify, Apple Music, Deezer, SoundCloud, and Amazon Music. For those who prefer visual experiences, his music videos can be found on his YouTube channel, "Equation Billionz."
