

Eric Mansfield, MD, MPH: Pioneering Compassionate Otolaryngology Care in Fayetteville, North Carolina

Celebrating Over Two Decades of Innovative Healthcare at Cape Fear Otolaryngology

New York City, New York Sep 28, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Cape Fear Otolaryngology, established in 2001 by Dr. Eric Mansfield, proudly continues to provide exceptional ear, nose, and throat care to the Fayetteville and Lumberton communities in North Carolina. With a commitment to friendly, compassionate service, Dr. Mansfield has created an innovative and collaborative environment where patients can expect the highest standard of medical care.

His impressive journey began in Louisiana, where he was born, before moving to Columbus, Georgia, during his formative years. Dr. Mansfield pursued his undergraduate studies in Chemistry at Howard University in Washington, D.C., laying a strong foundation for his medical career. He then attended Morehouse School of Medicine in Atlanta, Georgia, earning his Doctor of Medicine Degree in 1991. While at Morehouse, he was honored with the Family Practice Student Award, showcasing his dedication to patient-centered care from the outset of his career.

Following medical school, Dr. Mansfield completed a surgical residency at Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans. His exceptional skills and commitment to teaching earned him several accolades, including the Teaching Resident of the Year and the OWL Club Outstanding Resident Award. His tenure at Tulane culminated in a residency in otolaryngology from 1993 to 1996, where he served as Chief Resident in the Ear, Nose, and Throat program. He became board-certified by the American Board of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery in 1998, further solidifying his expertise in the field.

Since founding Cape Fear Otolaryngology, Dr. Mansfield has focused on fostering a welcoming atmosphere for patients while employing the latest advancements in otolaryngology. His dedication to compassionate care is evident in every patient interaction, making Cape Fear Otolaryngology a trusted resource for individuals seeking treatment for a variety of conditions affecting the ear, nose, and throat.
