SoSo Def R&B Experience, an unforgettable night of R&B music on Saturday, October 12, 2024, at Wolf Creek Amphitheater in Atlanta, Georgia. The star-studded lineup features live performances from today's hottest R&B artists including Muni Long, DVSN, Eric Bellinger, Vedo, and Jermaine Dupri himself with special surprise guests and a "Ladies Love R&B" presentation from songwriters and producers Bryan-Michael Cox and Keith Thomas rounding out the evening.

"R&B music is making a huge comeback, and I wanted to put together a show to celebrate that," said Jermaine Dupri, music legend and CEO of So So Def Recordings. "The SoSo Def R&B Experience is going to be an amazing night of intimate performances and collaborations from some of the genre's brightest stars."

As founder of So So Def Recordings, Jermaine Dupri has worked with and developed many of music's biggest stars including Mariah Carey, Usher, TLC, Xscape, and more. His imprint, So So Def, has been instrumental in launching the careers of artists like Jagged Edge, Bow Wow, Kris Kross, and Anthony Hamilton.

Tickets for the SoSo Def R&B Experience are on sale now at VarietyEnt.net. starting at $55 and gates open at 3 p.m. with the show starting at 5 p.m. Don't miss your chance to experience an unforgettable night of R&B music from some of the genre's hottest stars and today's reigning hitmakers.
