

Jordan's Way Partners with North Shore Humane Society in Louisiana for Overnight Bailout Challenge!

Jordan's
Way

New Orleans, Louisiana Sep 10, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Jordan's Way founder, Kris Rotonda, will make his way back to Covington, LA from September 17-19 for a 3-day challenge! First, he will bunk up with Walker, the gentle giant with a heart of gold, on 9/17, in hopes of finding him a forever home! Kris will be locked into the kennel with Walker, a stunning large male pup just over a year old.

Surrendered by his previous owner, Walker adores people all adults, children, and everyone in between his friendly, approachable demeanor makes him a favorite among everyone he meets. His wagging tail is a constant reminder of his happiness and enthusiasm for life. He also does great with other canines!! Kris and Walker will be roommates for as long as 72 hours unless $ is raised OR until Walker is adopted! Which will come first?! Follow Jordan's Way and North Shore Humane Society for live updates!

But the fun doesn't stop there! After this incredible bailout challenge, Kris and Jordan's Way crew will host a 3-hour live fundraiser from 6-9 pm on 9/19 in hopes of beating their fundraising efforts from the previous 3 years with $75,000 raised for North Shore's pets!!

Want to be a part of the fun!? DONATE HERE: <https://www.facebook.com/donate/300705503106270/> and don't miss the high-energy antics that come along with Kris and the crew! Be sure to catch the live feed on 9/19 at 6 PM!
