

Love & Opium Signs with Iron Gate Records, Announces Upcoming Album Launch

Album "Bloodflower" Out On 6th of September

New Bedford, Massachusetts Sep 3, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Love & Opium, the powerhouse rock band known for their electrifying performances and a unique blend of heavy metal grooves and melodic choruses, is thrilled to announce that they have officially signed with Iron Gate Records. This exciting partnership marks a new chapter in the band's career, culminating in the highly anticipated release of their upcoming album under the Iron Gate Records label.

A New Era Begins

Love & Opium has been a force in the New England music scene for over a decade, captivating audiences with their raw energy, emotionally charged lyrics, and arena-ready stage presence. After a brief hiatus and a refreshing reboot with a new lineup, the band is poised to make a significant impact on the national and international rock scene.

The band is composed of seasoned musicians who bring a wealth of experience from the New England and National music scenes. The current lineup includes Joey deMedeiros on vocals, Mike Paull on lead guitar and vocals, Mike Green on rhythm guitar, Nikki Sinn on bass and vocals, and Dave Latimer on drums. Each member adds a unique flavor to the band, with Joey's compelling vocals and Mike Paull's deeply expressive guitar work being particular highlights.

A Perfect Match with Iron Gate Records

Iron Gate Records, a label renowned for its commitment to nurturing and promoting independent rock artists, is the perfect home for Love & Opium. The label's cutting-edge approach to artist development, combined with its robust network of industry professionals, provides the band with the support they need to reach new heights.

"We are beyond excited to join the Iron Gate Records family," said Joey deMedeiros, lead vocalist of Love & Opium. "This partnership will allow us to fully realize our artistic vision and bring our music to a wider audience. The upcoming album is a true reflection of who we are as a band, and we can't wait to share it with the world."

An Album That Defines a Band

The upcoming album, set to be released later this year, promises to be a defining moment for Love & Opium. Fans can expect a collection of tracks that showcase the band's signature sound—powerful, emotionally charged, and deeply engaging. The album will include new material as well as some reimagined versions of fan favorites like "Die Alone" and "Feeling No Pain," which have been staples of their live performances.

In support of the album launch, Love & Opium will be embarking on a series of warm-up shows later this year, leading into a full-scale tour throughout 2025, including many festival appearances. These live performances are set to be a testament to the band's evolution and their readiness to dominate the rock music scene once again.
