Providing Comprehensive Care with a Focus on Women's Health and Adolescent Wellness

New York City, New York Sep 24, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Latonja Mack Ivery, MD, is a board-certified family physician with Avance Care North Wake Forest, a comprehensive primary care practice located in Wake Forest, North Carolina. With over 24 years of experience in family medicine, she excels in providing comprehensive care for families and individuals in the community.

With a special focus on women's health and adolescent wellness, Dr. Ivery recognizes the unique healthcare needs of these populations. She takes a holistic approach to patient care, emphasizing education and preventive measures to empower her patients to take charge of their health. She believes that informed patients are better equipped to make health-conscious decisions, which leads to improved overall well-being.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Medicine-Chapel Hill, Dr. Ivery earned her Doctor of Medicine degree in 1996. She further honed her skills during her internship and residency at MedStar Franklin Square Medical Center in Baltimore, Maryland.

As a Diplomate of the American Board of Family Medicine, Dr. Ivery is dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of care. Additionally, she has been certified in colposcopy training for two decades, enhancing her ability to provide comprehensive women's health services.

Dr. Ivery's dedication to her patients extends beyond the exam room. She is known for her compassionate approach and her ability to build trusting relationships that foster open communication. Her goal is to create a supportive environment where patients feel comfortable discussing their health concerns and goals.

When she is not caring for patients, Dr. Ivery enjoys spending quality time with her family and exploring new destinations through travel. She also has a passion for cooking and loves creating delicious treats for her loved ones.
