

Michael Moen, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Transforming Properties and Lives with Expertise and Dedication in the Lake Country Area, Wisconsin's Thriving Real Estate Market

New York City, New York Sep 16, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Michael Moen, a highly regarded owner and broker at Arkenstone Real Estate Experts of Hartland Realty Group, continues to make waves in the real estate sector with his unparalleled knowledge and commitment to client satisfaction. With a solid foundation in home construction and remodeling, he has successfully navigated the complexities of the real estate market since obtaining his license in 2011 and broker status in 2012.

With over a decade of experience, Michael has cultivated a diverse portfolio that includes residential, commercial, and rental properties, as well as ventures involving vacant land. His journey in real estate began in 2003, where he honed his skills under the mentorship of his brother (Mark Moen), tackling everything from home repairs to marketing analysis of many properties. This hands-on experience has been instrumental in shaping his comprehensive understanding of property transformation, having personally revitalized over fifty homes, turning neglected spaces into inviting, move-in-ready residences.

Michael's wealth of experience extends beyond just property flipping; he possesses a profound understanding of the intricacies of home inspections, building codes, and the essential elements of contract negotiation. He believes that contracts are crucial for securing agreements between buyers and sellers, and his expertise in this area has set him apart in the competitive real estate landscape.

As a current leader within his brokerage, Michael is not only known for his negotiation skills but also for his in-depth understanding of regulatory landscapes, including municipal regulations, lakes, wetlands, and forestry. His dedication to client satisfaction is evident in his approach, which is characterized by personalized service and a commitment to excellence.

Michael's contributions to the industry are noteworthy; he currently serves on the Board of Directors and served on the Associate Leadership Council of Keller Williams, actively influencing the future of real estate in his community. His accolades, including multiple Agent of the Month and various volume and unit sold awards, underscore his success and dedication to the profession.

Outside of his professional endeavors, Michael embraces family life with his five children. He enjoys woodworking, hunting, trap shooting, boating, fishing, and hiking, while also managing a farm that houses 50 chickens, four goats, a horse of course:) and lush gardens, including apple trees and recreational vehicle collection.
