Immigrant Podiatrist Fulfills the American Dream Through Exceptional Medical Practice

New York City, New York Sep 28, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Nolaska Souliotis, a highly regarded podiatrist fluent in English and Spanish, proudly announces her role as owner of Elite Foot and Ankle Associates. Elite Foot and Ankle Associates is not just another medical practice; it is a testament to the power of determination and resilience founded by two immigrant women who have embraced the American Dream.

Based in Spicewood, Texas, Dr. Souliotis has built a practice prioritizing excellent patient care, striving to exceed expectations in every service aspect. Her commitment to staying abreast of the latest innovations, techniques, and treatments reflects her compassion for patients and dedication to healing.

Dr. Souliotis, a 2007 Dr. William M. Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine graduate, completed her internship and residency at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center, followed by a prestigious fellowship in European Foot and Ankle Trauma and Reconstruction. She is board-certified through the American Board of Foot and Ankle Surgery. She is an active member of several professional organizations, including the American Podiatric Medical Association, the Illinois Podiatric Medical Association, and the Texas Podiatric Medical Association.

As an advocate for health and fitness, Dr. Souliotis emphasizes the importance of activity and mobility in her practice. “I’m a big advocate for activity and mobility. My passion is exercising, and my goal is to impact my patient’s health so they get back on their feet to accomplish their own goals and ability to do so in the healthiest way,” she expressed.

Outside of her professional commitments, Dr. Souliotis enjoys weightlifting and running in her spare time. As a devoted mother of three, she balances her career with family life, allowing her children to keep her on her toes, literally and figuratively.
