

Rising from the Ashes, 5900Lou about to Drop ‘Do It (Don’t Stop)’

His tracks are fueled by struggles and a true bond of childhood friendship. 5900Lou is about to release his new hit track ‘Do It (Don’t Stop)’ for his fans.

Chicago, Illinois Sep 18, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Most of the rappers seen in today's music world come from a mind space of pain and struggle. The new and booming rapper 5900Lou has gone through struggles the same or maybe even more. His latest track 'Do It \(Don't Stop\)' is the reflection of that pain. Since the very beginning of his life, it was meant to be rough and dysfunctional. While growing up, being the kid to a single and addicted mother, the young rapper could never seem to find the light. This led to his teenage years being mainly passed behind the bars. Getting associated with the wrong kinds of people practically ruined his tender years. But things took a different route when he was faced with his childhood friend Ball in the prison cell as his cellmate.

This childhood friend was the only one who saw the true potential the enigmatic rapper had in him and pursued him to nurture his rapping skills. From that day onwards, 5900Lou decided to focus his life on music, and the rest is known to the world and his fans. After getting out of jail, the rapper released his first track 'SSHHCAGO' which became a worldwide hit and the rising rapper took his first step into the journey of success. His newly released track 'Do It (Don't Stop)' is creating a buzz in the music industry right now for its gritty and fun lyrics along with the amazing music production quality. After hearing the news of his childhood friend Ball passing away, the fire in the rapper was fueled immensely, and now he has doubled his efforts into creating new and exciting Hip-Hop tracks that are fun yet healing to listen to.

Apart from his new tracks and his debut song, he has created many more hit tracks that have made his fans go crazy over this enigmatic rapper. Tracks like 'PRESSURE' FT Trigga Mel showed how versatile his style truly is and fans can listen to all of the tracks on YouTube and to get new updates about the rapper and his upcoming tracks they can visit his social media profiles on Facebook, TikTok, and Instagram.
