Nashville Realtor Combines Passion for Music and Real Estate to Deliver Unmatched Client Service

New York City, New York Sep 18, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Ryan McClanahan, a licensed realtor with Crye-Leike Realtors, is dedicated to delivering unparalleled service to home buyers and sellers in Nashville, Tennessee. He is currently working towards obtaining his Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR) designation, further solidifying his commitment to professional development and client satisfaction.

Since relocating from north of Atlanta, Georgia, in 2011 to attend Belmont University's Mike Curb College of Music Business, Ryan has developed an extensive understanding of Nashville's vibrant neighborhoods. He graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration in 2015 and has since honed his customer service skills across various roles, including as a ride-share driver and at Warby Parker, where he cultivated a knack for creative problem-solving and delivering exceptional customer experiences.

Now operating out of the Green Hills office with Crye-Leike Realtors, Ryan is thrilled to harness the resources of a well-established firm and the mentorship of experienced brokers. His goal is to become a trusted resource for first-time home buyers, seasoned investors, and individuals looking to sell their properties.

Ryan's passion for music has been a driving force in his life, beginning with piano lessons at the age of three and evolving into a decade-long journey touring North America with various bands. Now, as a core member of the Allman Brothers Tribute band, End of the Line, he channels his rhythmic energy into playing Latin percussion and drums. This artistic background not only fuels his creativity but also enhances his ability to connect with clients on a personal level.

With a deep understanding of Nashville's unique character and a commitment to excellence, Ryan McClanahan is ready to help clients achieve their real estate goals.
